Company description

BRS Ventures Ltd. (the "Company" or "BRS") was incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on June 8, 2007. Following its initial public offering on February 29, 2008, the Company qualified as a capital pool company ("CPC") as defined by TSX V Policy 2.4 ("Policy 2.4") of the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX V" or the "Exchange") and the shares were listed for trading under the trading symbol "BRV-P.V". To date the Company has not completed a Qualifying Transaction ("QT") as defined under Policy 2.4. As the Company has yet to complete a QT, the Company no longer qualifies as a CPC and currently trades on the NEX board of the TSX V under the trading symbol "BRV.H".

General

Currently, BRS is continuing in its efforts to complete a QT and any pre-requisite financing in order to qualify as a Tier 2 Issuer on the TSX-V. Any proposed qualifying transaction is still subject to approval by the Exchange and there can be no assurance that in the event that a QT is secured and approved that the Company will be able to secure the necessary financing.

Corporate history

On October 7, 2009, the Company initially attempted to complete a QT by entering into an agreement to acquire all the assets of Quantum United Technologies Inc. (QTI) to whom BRS had advanced $60,000 in anticipation of closing the proposed QT (the "QTI Advance"). A draft Information Circular, describing the terms and process that constituted the proposed QT was presented to the Exchange for approval. The Exchange did not grant an approval of the Qualifying Transaction because the underlying technology was judged to be insufficiently advanced in its development. BRS was consequently unable to meet the time deadline for a CPC to complete a QT. As a result, the Company ceased to qualify as a CPC and moved its listing to the NEX board of the TSX V (the "NEX"). Having secured shareholder approval at the AGM held on July 20, 2010, the NEX listing became effective July 28, 2010. On August 16, 2010 the Company terminated its agreement with QTI.

On October 18, 2010 the Company signed a term sheet for a QT with Landmaster Partners, Inc ("LPI"). As part of that term sheet, LPI paid the Company a US$25,000 ($25,070) non-refundable deposit (the "Landmaster Deposit"). On July 21, 2011 the Company announced that it would not be proceeding with the proposed LPI transaction.
